

2023 Volume II Chapter 5 Highlights

Clearly defined roles and responsibilities for registration program and border control

Traffic safety analysis conducted, however, backlogs still existed at borders

Key performance indicators not established for the hotel isolation program

We determined that key responsibilities under emergency planning were adequately carried out, however, departments lacked business continuity plans

Overall Conclusions

- The Department of Justice and Public Safety had adequate procedures in place to enforce border restrictions during the COVID-19 pandemic.
  - New Brunswick Emergency Measures Organization (NBEMO), for the most part, fulfilled its mandate.
