

Chapter 2 Highlights

Incomplete key performance indicators	Emergency department wait times exceed established targets	Budget not aligned with service delivery needs
No comprehensive strategy to address excessive wait times

OVERALL CONCLUSION:

Our audit work concluded that the Department of Health does not have effective oversight mechanisms in place to ensure timely access to, and adequate reporting on, emergency health services.